ARIZONA NEWS OF INTEREST

practicable only through Arizona. Articles of incorporation have been filed for new railroad to enter Verde valley. This attractive section will now be more accessible. A big new smelter for United Verde mine will be built along the line.

University of Arizona is extending the work of co-operation with farmers of the new state. County institutes are being organized and a very extensive lecture program is being carried out by officials of the university. Great activity at Hayden where has been erected the enormous concentrating plant of Ray Consolidated Mining company. A smelter to cost over $1,000,000 for the American Smelting and Refining company is now being built.

Reports from Los Angeles advise that work on San Carlos cut-off of Arizona Eastern will soon be commenced. Contracts for construction work are already let. This will make the lowest grade trans-continent railroad in the country.

Commencing Dec. 6 mountain time will be adopted by all railroads entering Phoenix. This will make uniform time in Phoenix.

CATTLE RECEIPTS AT KANSAS CITY HEAVY

Kansas City Stock Yards, Dec. 2.—Heavy receipts of range cattle came in the first part of last week, but few cattle of any kind arrived after Wednesday. The market declined 15 to 25 cents Monday and Tuesday, and remained on the bottom Wednesday.

The run was so small after Wednesday that buyers began to take notice and by the end of the week most of the loss had been regained. Stockers and feeders were at very low ebb on now being sold.

Through the efforts of Mr. Linn, Mr. John P. Brennan and his beautiful and accomplished daughter, Miss Neil Carlton Brennan, were induced to come here from Cincinnati, Ohio, the former home of Mr. Linn.

Mr. Brennan is the editor of The Eleven O'Clock, the official organ of the Elks. Mr. Brennan made the address of the occasion, which was a splendid effort. Mr. Brennan is a very large man and has the outside resemblance of Robert G. Ingersoll but also resembles him in manner, but he is not an admirer of Bob. His address was a feast that Carlsbad has never enjoyed before, and his words were like beautiful jewels linked together with links of pure gold.

Mr. Brennan gave them his address, Miss Neil Carlton Brennan rendered "My Redeemer and My Lord," she has an exquisite voice and the people of Carlsbad have fallen in love with her.

Miss Jenny Linn was the accompanist on the piano. Mrs. John T. Harber, a bride of 5 months, recited "The Absent" in a most beautiful manner.

The flower song was rendered by Mr. Woolley, who at one time was leader of a large orchestra at Hallstead, England; violinist. Professor Joe Ranch, who is leader of the Carlsbad band in New Mexico, said to be the best band in New Mexico. Clarinet; and Miss Jenny Linn, pianist. This was rendered in a very sweet manner.

A violin solo was rendered by Mr. Woolley that was a gem not often heard in any country.

Mrs. Homer F. Parr, the favorite singer of Carlsbad, rendered "My Jesus as Thou Will." Mrs. Parr is a soprano singer and has the sweetest voice in the southwest.

The doxology by a selected quartet, joined by the audience, was rendered in a most satisfactory manner.

Rev. Mr. Davis made a few remarks on "Brotherhood," and although not an Elk his words were very beautiful and highly appreciated. Rev. Jasper T. Moses of the Christian church pronounced the benediction.

The absent brothers are Frank Moore, Dr. L. A. Brelo, George L. Newton, and the Rev. Charles L. Holtzman.

The stray Elks in Carlsbad are M. C. Stowart, John T. Bolton, J. R. Holt, C. N. Jones, Dr. L. E. Ervin, Dr. F. D. Poepel, W. A. Finlay, W. H. Merchant, C. M. Richards, J. S. Osborne, Buck Gray, Tom Bryan, John Price, John T. Barber, Glenn Burnett, A. H. O'Gorman, Roswell, N. M., No. 229; Howard Schneidler, Miami, Florida, No. 94; Harry C. Braden, Rocky Ford, Colo., No. 147; Joseph P. Wangler, Decorah, Iowa, No. 452; O. G. Peterson, Steubenville, Ohio, No. 231; T. W. Crow, Florence, Alabama, No. 292; J. W. Crow, Florence, Alabama, No. 280; M. S. Graves, Santa Fe, New Mexico, No. 160; A. J. Muzyk, Bristol, Connecticut, No. 1810; C. D. Chaffee, Ann Arbor, Michigan, No. 325; J. R. Linn, Conovering, Ind., No. 219; A. F. Rich, Webb City, Mo., No. 961; K. J. Read, Amarillo, Texas, No. 232; M. S. Taylor, Amarillo, Texas, No. 233; T. C. Welsh, Wichita, Kansas, No. 427; R. D.
